Dare and Soar

The motto of the college “Dare and Soar” is indeed an inspiring one. God wants strong leaders who will not tremble like reeds in the wind in times of adversity and crisis. “Kites fly highest not with the wind, but against the wind”. ‘Dare’ stands for courage, effort and enterprise, confidence and determination. ‘Soar’ stands for the goal, destination, purpose and the central meaning of one’s life. It also stands for the fruits of being daring success and achievement. The olive branches symbolize peace and prosperity. The flame represents the Eternal Light that dispels darkness and the cross is the symbol of love and sacrifice. The icon of Don Bosco symbolizes the inspiration and the pedagogy of education.
